Art

The Art Department offers theoretical and practical courses in the traditional disciplines of art and art history as well as in new genre and photographic arts. Students take art courses to prepare for a major in art or art history, to meet general education requirements, or for personal growth. Career paths include working artist, teacher, graphic designer, photographer, sculptor, curator in a museum or gallery, conservator, appraiser, and work in related fields, such as marketing and advertising.

Associate Degrees

Associate in Arts Degree

Art History for Transfer

Students completing this associate degree will have completed lower-division major preparation requirements for an art history degree, an emphasis or option within an art history degree, or a degree considered similar in art history at a participating California State University (CSU) campus. Following transfer to a participating CSU campus, students will be required to complete no more than 60 units to obtain a bachelor’s degree; however, some CSU campuses may require additional lower-division major preparation. This degree may not be appropriate preparation for students transferring to a CSU campus not accepting this degree or to a university or college that is not part of the CSU system. Students should consult with a MiraCosta counselor for further information regarding the most efficient pathway to transfer as an art history major and to determine which CSU campuses are participating in this program.

To complete the degree, students must fulfill the following requirements:

- Complete a minimum of 60 CSU-transferable semester units.
- Complete all courses required in the major with a "C" or "P" or better.
- Complete the CSU-GE (Plan B) or IGETC (Plan C) general education pattern.
- Obtain a minimum CSU-transferable GPA of 2.0.
- Complete a minimum of 12 units in residence at MiraCosta College.

* Students completing IGETC may be awarded the degree, but they must complete a course from Area IC: Oral Communication to meet CSU admission requirements.

Program Student Learning Outcome Statement

- Upon completion of this program, the student will possess knowledge and mastery of a variety of art historical methodologies, be able to identify major movements in art and architecture, and be able to convey ideas and concepts about artwork, artists, and the socio-cultural milieu in which artworks were created.

- Course satisfies a general education requirement on the CSU-GE or IGETC general education (GE) pattern. To ensure this degree is completed with no more than 60 units, students should select courses that will also satisfy a GE requirement. Note: The honors courses listed are also GE courses.

NOTE: Students are strongly advised to select courses that meet lower-division major preparation requirements at their transfer university and to complete the History, Constitution, and American Ideals requirement prior to transfer.

Associate in Arts Degree
Studio Arts for Transfer

Students completing this associate degree will have completed lower-division major preparation requirements for a studio arts degree, an emphasis or option within a studio arts degree, or a degree considered similar to studio arts at a participating California State University (CSU) campus. Following transfer to a participating CSU campus, students will be required to complete no more than 60 units to obtain a bachelor’s degree; however, some CSU campuses accepting this degree may require additional lower-division major preparation. This degree may not be appropriate preparation for students transferring to a non-participating CSU campus or to a university or college that is not part of the CSU system. Students should consult with a MiraCosta counselor for further information regarding the most efficient pathway to transfer as a studio arts major and to determine which CSU campuses are participating in this program.

To complete the degree, students must fulfill the following requirements:

- Complete a minimum of 60 CSU-transferable semester units.
- Complete all courses required in the major with a “C” or “P” or better.
- Complete the CSU-GE (Plan B) or IGETC (Plan C) * general education pattern.
- Obtain a minimum CSU-transferable GPA of 2.0.
- Complete a minimum of 12 units in residence at MiraCosta College.

* Students completing IGETC may be awarded the degree, but they must complete a course from Area IC: Oral Communication to meet CSU admission requirements.

Program Student Learning Outcome Statement

- Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to define and demonstrate a variety of art-making techniques and skills in both traditional and contemporary art processes and idioms.

* Course satisfies a general education requirement on the CSU-GE or IGETC general education pattern. To ensure this degree is completed with no more than 60 units, students should select courses that will also satisfy a general education requirement.

 Course is required major preparation at CSU San Marcos (CSUSM). Students planning to transfer to CSUSM are advised to select these courses to complete the associate degree. For more information on this major at CSUSM, please refer to the articulation agreement at assist.org.

NOTE: Students are strongly advised to select courses that meet lower-division major preparation requirements at their transfer university and to complete the History, Constitution, and American Ideals requirement prior to transfer.

Associate in Arts Degree
Digital Photography

Students may earn the above-named associate degree by completing a certificate of achievement and the general education courses required for MiraCosta College’s Associate in Arts degree (see Associate Degrees). Students should meet with a MiraCosta counselor to identify required courses and to develop a written educational plan for the specific degree or certificate they wish to earn.
Program Student Learning Outcome Statement

- Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to identify major movements, artwork, and artists in historical and contemporary photography, and demonstrate an understanding of different photo techniques.

Certificate of Achievement

Digital Photography

The Digital Photography certificate offers education and training in the use of digital cameras, related equipment, and editing tools and techniques for creating photographic portfolios, websites, and multimedia projects. Students produce a professional-quality printed portfolio. The program’s emphasis may be in fine art or commercial photography.

Program Student Learning Outcome Statement

- Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to identify major movements, artwork, and artists in historical and contemporary photography. The student will also be able to demonstrate understanding of different photo techniques.

Certificate of Achievement

Museum Studies

The Museum Studies certificate is designed for students interested in transfer to four-year degree programs related to museum and gallery fields of study. The certificate offers education and experience related to the issues of exhibition, collection, preservation, and marketing of objects of display in museum or gallery spaces. Students produce a formal exhibition at MiraCosta College’s Kruglak Gallery. The student’s emphasis may be in either museum or gallery studies; emphases in museum display may cover a range of academic disciplines or specialties.

Program Student Learning Outcome Statement

- Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to analyze and communicate critically formulated ideas and concepts about the care, display, maintenance, and/or sale of object collections as commonly found in museums or galleries.
- Upon completion of this program, the student will have documentable experience in the care, display, maintenance, and/or sale of object collections.

Courses Related in Content (CRC)

Active participatory art courses that are related in content are grouped together. Students are allowed four enrollments within each CRC group, but each course may be taken only once unless its catalog description indicates it is repeatable. Enrollments include any combination of course completions (with an evaluative or nonevaluative symbol recorded on the student's transcript), withdrawals, and repetition.

Courses

ART 100: Drawing and Composition
- Units: 3
- Prerequisites: None
- Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 100, ART 102, ART 200, ART 203, ART 213, and ART 263.
- Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
- Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
- Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

This beginning course develops basic drawing skills. Students explore a variety of media and creative approaches, and they improve their perceptual abilities and personal expression. The course covers problems of value, structure, and composition using a variety of themes. It also integrates art history, theory, and criticism. C-ID ARTS-110.

ART 101: Design and Color
- Units: 3
- Prerequisites: None
- Enrollment Limitation: None
- Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
- Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
- Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

Students explore and learn the language of design principles and color theory through visual problem solving. They create design projects using acrylic paint, ink, drawing, and mixed media on paper and other support surfaces. They also research, analyze, and evaluate elements of design and color in a range of art disciplines, including painting and drawing, graphic design, print and digital media, sculpture and public art, video and performance, architecture, and other popular arts. Students are required to attend field trips. C-ID ARTS-100.
ART 102: Drawing and Composition II
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 100.
Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 100, ART 102, ART 200, ART 203, ART 213, and ART 263.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course provides for the continued development of basic drawing skills introduced in ART 100. It emphasizes a creative approach using black and white and color media while exposing students to a variety of contemporary approaches toward space, scale, and content. The course also encourages students to develop personal expression through the combined manipulations of subject matter and materials.

ART 103: 3D Design
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

In this sculpture course, students examine the language of three-dimensional form, structure, and space. The course develops personal expression, using a variety of themes and subject matter by ordering three-dimensional space through basic materials, such as clay, plaster, metal, and wood. It offers experiences with differing approaches within cultural contexts and integrates history, theory, and criticism, showing the interrelationship of the creative arts, humanities, and the self in western and non-western cultures. (Materials Fee: $25) C-ID ARTS-101.

ART 104: Artists & Designers Now
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 3 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall or Spring

This course examines contemporary ideas and processes of art and design through the study of living artists and designers’. A historical overview provides context to movements and issues in art since the 1960s as preparation for visiting artists’ and designers’ presentations, video screenings, and visits to art and design exhibitions and/or studios. Students gain insight into ideas and material methods in diverse media including, but not limited to painting, drawing, sculpture, performance, photography, installation, 2D and 3D design production, and electronic media. This course is for beginning students in the field of art and design and related disciplines.

ART 157: Art Orientation
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 3 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

This basic art appreciation course introduces world art forms, techniques, traditions, and aesthetics. It emphasizes both western and world art in historical and cultural contexts. Students examine visual artworks related to mortality and immortality, sustenance and survival, sexuality and gender, power and politics, and race and class. Students are required to visit a local public artwork or museum/gallery.

ART 158: Traditional Arts of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 3 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course introduces the non-Western arts of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas. It explores methodology and materials in diverse media as they reflect various cultures from ancient to contemporary periods. Museum visits are required. C-ID ARTH-140.

ART 159: Art of Ancient Mesoamerica and South America
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Enrollment Limitation: Not open to students with prior credit in ART 159H.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 3 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course covers the arts of the indigenous peoples of Mesoamerica and South America. It surveys the various cultures of those areas from ancient periods to the points of European contact, emphasizing content and style of materials in diverse media. Museum visits may be required. UC Credit Limitation: Credit for ART 159 or ART 159H.

ART 159H: Art of Ancient Mesoamerica and South America (Honors)
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Enrollment Limitation: Not open to students with prior credit in ART 159.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 3 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This honors course introduces highly motivated students to the arts of the indigenous peoples of Mesoamerica and South America. It surveys the various cultures of those areas from ancient periods to the points of European contact, emphasizing content and style of materials in diverse media. Museum visits may be required. UC Credit Limitation: Credit for ART 159 or ART 159H.
ART 200: Drawing III
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 102.
Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 100, ART 102, ART 200, ART 203, ART 213, and ART 263.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This advanced drawing course focuses on contemporary drawing practices and conceptual thinking in the development of an individualized portfolio. Students apply subjective perspectives to selected subject matter and content using a variety of drawing media and large scale formats. Field trips to gallery and museum exhibitions, both on campus and in the community, are required.

ART 201: Objects and Ideas in Contemporary Art
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall or Spring

This course examines the ideas, concepts, and processes in contemporary art through presentations of vanguard artwork of the twenty-first century. Topics include the historical and cultural contexts of contemporary art and artists in western and non-western cultures. Students create three-dimensional art projects using unconventional materials in tandem with traditional materials and methods. Students are required to attend field trips. (Materials Fee: $30.00)

ART 202: Painting: Acrylic
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Advisory: ART 100 OR ART 101.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course covers composition, techniques, and theory of painting using acrylic paint. Students investigate various acrylic painting techniques, art historical traditions, and theoretical positions. Coursework includes lecture, lab, critique, and independent projects. Students may be required to attend field trips to art exhibitions.

ART 203: Life Drawing I
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Advisory: ART 100
Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 100, ART 102, ART 200, ART 203, ART 213, and ART 263.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This beginning life drawing course focuses on representation of the human figure. Students work from a nude model using materials such as charcoal, pencil, ink, and pastels. They learn how to depict action in quick gesture drawings as well as produce more complex tonal drawings with emphasis on composition and expression. Topics include basic anatomy, structure, and proportion with equal emphasis placed on line quality, value, and media control. C-ID ARTS-200.

ART 204: Painting I: Oils
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Advisory: ART 100 OR ART 101.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Students study past and present practices in painting and work from various subjects, including still life, landscape, figures, portraits, or mixed imagery, either from life or two-dimensional references. Learning to be creative and analytical in painting images and forms, students develop skills in painting techniques, color mixing, composition, design, and personal concepts using traditional or water soluble oils. C-ID ARTS-210.

ART 205: Painting: Watercolor
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Advisory: ART 100 or ART 101.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course investigates and experiences the unique characteristics of watercolor painting. Course topics explore compositional strategies, practical techniques, and theoretical concepts of painting using watercolor. Students study and apply various painting techniques, art historical traditions, and theoretical positions. Course work includes lecture, lab, critique, and independent projects.
ART 206: Mixed Media Figure Studies I
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Advisory: ART 100 OR ART 204.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Working from a posed model, students explore various approaches to representing the human figure using a choice of media, including oils, acrylics, ink, or pastels. Students study form and structure, inspired by the rich world traditions of art history, contemporary art practices, and individual creativity.

ART 207: Beginning Photography
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This analog photography course provides an in-depth study of the camera, black-and-white film processing and darkroom printing, lighting techniques, presentation, and exhibition. It emphasizes controlling fundamental materials and processes and choosing appropriate subject matter. Note: This is not a digital photography course.

ART 208: Advanced Photography
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 207
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall or Spring

This course builds upon skills learned in Beginning Photography (ART 207). Topics include intermediate and advanced techniques in black and white photography, including camera use, film handling, and printing in the darkroom. Students explore photography as a means of visual communication and creative expression. The course culminates with a professional portfolio of finished work.

ART 210: Printmaking I
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

This course introduces woodcut, etching, lithography, and contemporary printmaking techniques. It emphasizes craftsmanship and individual expression and encourages experimentation in the use of materials.

ART 211: Mixed Media Figure Studies II
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 206.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course provides students an opportunity to further their investigation of the human figure in contemporary painting. Objectives include the development of personal vision and alternative venues of expression. Students study twentieth and twenty-first century figurative artists, and they work from both live models and photographic references using a variety of mixed media, including oil or acrylic paint.

ART 212: Painting II: Acrylic
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 202.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course emphasizes intermediate practices in acrylic painting. Students develop an acrylic painting portfolio by creating a variety of expressive works using a variety of techniques and materials unique to acrylics. Students study historic and current painters and contemporary painting trends. The course utilizes digital technology for artistic research and development.

ART 213: Life Drawing II
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 203.
Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 100, ART 102, ART 200, ART 203, ART 213, and ART 263.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

In this intermediate life drawing course students create drawings of human figures from observation, promoting visual acuity while exploring expressive drawing techniques and concepts in contemporary studio practice. The visual forms of the figure are strengthened through continued applications of two-dimensional drawing methods and practice. Figurative subjects are derived from nude models in the classroom and other assigned reference sources.

ART 214: Painting II: Oils
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 204.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course emphasizes intermediate practices in oil painting to create artwork in a context of personal meaning, narrative, and relevance for portfolio development. Students study artworks specific to the history of oil painting and contemporary practice while building technical skill and exploring alternative methods and materials. The course introduces digital technology as a preparatory tool for artists.
ART 215: Painting II: Watercolor
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 205.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course emphasizes intermediate practices in watercolor painting. Students continue to explore compositional methods while developing a portfolio of expressive paintings using techniques and materials unique to watercolor. Students study historic traditions and contemporary painters, trends, theoretical positions, and methods. This course utilizes digital and traditional technology for artistic research and development.

ART 216: Sculpture
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 103.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

This course concentrates on the exploration and refinement of a wide range of sculptural techniques and strategies, and it includes three-dimensional art theory. Students work with traditional mediums, such as clay, wood, and metal. The course also introduces students to installation and public works as well as time-based and kinetic art. (Materials Fee: $25.00)

ART 217: Figure Sculpture I
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall or Spring

This introductory-level figure sculpture course uses the human form as subject matter. Students work from researched images, photos, and models. They develop conceptual drawings and maquettes and work with a variety of materials, such as clay, plaster, metal, and wood, to produce finished artworks. (Materials Fee: $25)

ART 218: Printmaking II
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 210.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

Students study past and present practices in printmaking and a variety of techniques to further their skills in the medium. This course furthers students’ knowledge of woodcut, etching, lithography, and contemporary printmaking techniques. It emphasizes print studio operations, particularly press maintenance and the formulation of wet materials.

ART 219: Figure Sculpture II
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Advisory: ART 217
Acceptable for Credit: CSU
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall or Spring

This intermediate-level figure sculpture course uses the human form as subject matter. Students work from researched images, photos, and models. They develop conceptual drawings and maquettes and work with a variety of materials, such as clay, plaster, metal, and wood, to produce finished artworks. (Materials Fee: $25)

ART 221: Printmaking III
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 218.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall or Spring

In this advanced level printmaking course, students study past and present practices in printmaking and a variety of techniques to further their skills in the medium and their knowledge of woodcut, etching, lithography, and contemporary printmaking techniques. The course covers non-traditional print methods as well as mixed media printing and emphasizes print studio operations, particularly press maintenance, and the formulation of wet materials.

ART 222: Printmaking IV
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 221.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall or Spring

This course is designed for semi-professional students wishing to major in art with an emphasis in printmaking. Students work closely with the instructor to create a cohesive body of work for a portfolio or exhibition. The course emphasizes documenting and analyzing one’s artwork. Students should contact the instructor prior to enrollment to discuss topics related to the medium. Students are required to visit exhibitions and attend field trips to view artworks.

ART 223: Woodworking and Furniture Design I
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course teaches woodworking skills and covers the nature of hardwoods and softwoods, the mechanics of shaping/joining, and the proper and safe use of hand and power tools. It examines both traditional and contemporary work and emphasizes the creation of individual, unique designs. Students are required to pay a materials fee. (Materials Fee: $25)
ART 224: Woodworking and Furniture Design II
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 223.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Students continue developing their woodworking skills by examining traditional and contemporary woodworking designs and practices and by learning intermediate-level hand and power tool techniques. The course emphasizes studio operations, particularly safety and electric and hand operated machine maintenance. It requires students to express concepts and ideas through the wood medium. (Materials Fee: $25)

ART 225: Ceramics I
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This introductory ceramics course explores techniques, materials, and traditions of pottery. It emphasizes hand building and/or use of the potter's wheel and encourages the creative use of clay, glaze, technique, and kiln firing. (Materials Fee: $25)

ART 226: Ceramics II
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 225.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Students study past and present practices in ceramics with a variety of techniques and clay bodies to further their skills in the medium. The course places a strong emphasis on ceramics studio operations, particularly the formulation of clay bodies and glazes. Topics include firing and construction of kilns. The course emphasizes combining hand building and throwing techniques to produce artworks. (Materials Fee: $25.00)

ART 227: Ceramics III
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 226.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall or Spring

This advanced level ceramics course focuses on ceramics studio operations, particularly the formulation of clay bodies and glazes. Topics include alternative firings and construction of kilns. The course emphasizes combining hand building and throwing techniques to produce artworks. The course covers a broad definition of ceramics as a medium and investigates mixed medium designs. (Materials Fee: $25.00)

ART 228: Ceramics IV
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 227.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall or Spring

This course is designed for advanced students wishing to major in art with an emphasis in ceramics. Students work closely with the instructor to create a cohesive body of work for a portfolio or exhibition. The course emphasizes documenting and analyzing one's artwork. Students should contact the instructor prior to enrollment to discuss topics related to the medium. Students are required to visit exhibitions and attend field trips to view artworks. (Materials Fee: $25.00)

ART 229: Woodworking and Furniture Design III
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 224.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall or Spring

This advanced woodworking and furniture design course requires students to express concepts and ideas through the wood medium. Students continue developing their woodworking skills by examining traditional and contemporary woodworking designs and practices and applying these references into their work. Topics include advanced-level hand and power tool techniques, studio operations, particularly safety and electric and hand operated machine maintenance, and mixed media woodworking techniques. (Materials Fee: $25)

ART 230: Installation Art
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall

Installation art is a form of advanced multimedia sculpture that is interactive and site-specific. In this in-depth and hands-on study of installation art, students learn about the historical and theoretical development of contemporary art practices, such as installation, hybrid-media environments, land art, and traditional art media used in conjunction with photography, video, computing, and/or performance. Students also conceptualize and produce installation, interactive, and site-specific artworks. (Materials Fee: $25.00)

ART 232: Video Art
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall even years

This course introduces video as a medium of artistic expression, personal narrative, and cultural inquiry. Students examine the art-historical origins of video and its evolution over time as well as its place in contemporary art. Through a project-based structure, students learn historical, theoretical, and creative uses of video art through hands-on video capture, editing, and presentation in a gallery setting.
ART 234: Kinetic Art
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall or Spring every 3rd sem

This course covers the history and practice of movement in art. It combines the use and study and practice of movement, machines, and performance as a means of personal expression, social intervention, political act, and cultural reclamation and as a noncommercial strategy of contemporary art. Students design, plan, and exhibit kinetic artworks that pertain to the historical movements covered.

ART 239: Woodworking and Furniture Design IV

ART 244: Digital Media for the Visual Artist
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 2 hours, laboratory 3 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Spring

This studio art course investigates the intersection of visual representation, contemporary art, and two-dimensional digital imaging and motion-based artwork from an aesthetic, historical, and artistic perspective for the contemporary artist. Technical instruction in the course, through the use of digital imaging software such as Adobe Photoshop, globally supports the study of artistic and theoretical principles. Students develop problem-solving and visual strategies that deepen their understanding of the connection among technology, personal expression, and the universal language of art. Projects emphasize the creation of original artwork with current software and hardware solutions.

ART 245: Digital Art and Media
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall

This course provides an introduction to the historical and theoretical foundations of digital art as well as hands-on production of digital art using a broad range of applications and computer hardware. The course introduces students to raster, vector, web, and time-based applications that allow them to learn the fundamentals of visual communication, website production, manipulation of images, design elements, animation, sound, video and the production of multimedia artworks. Students create digital projects that fuse the theoretical, historical, and cultural aspects of digitally based art through the practical application of computer-based skills. (Materials Fee: $15.00). C-ID ARTS-250.
ART 251: Digital Photography
Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer
This course uses digital cameras and the computer as tools to create photographic imagery. Students explore camera controls, principles of composition, and photographic theory and techniques using state-of-the-art hardware and programs. Students learn editing techniques appropriate for print and electronic presentations. The course addresses ethical considerations regarding image manipulation and ownership. Students may use digital camera images, scanned negatives, or slides to produce a final print portfolio.

ART 253: Applied Digital Photography
Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 251
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 2 hours, laboratory 3 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring
This course provides students with the opportunity to apply skills acquired in ART 251 while developing a personal style. It offers a continued study of photographic theory, composition, content development, digital camera/hardware handling, studio lighting, and industry standards for color management and printing techniques. Students explore photography as a visual language and expressive medium, and they observe industry practices through onsite visits to local business, galleries, and service bureaus. The course culminates with the creation and production of a professional portfolio of photographs.

ART 254: Understanding and Appreciating the Photographic Image
