

Final Exams

Final examinations are to be administered by the instructor and taken by the student according to the published schedule. For faculty administering final exams, approval from the vice president of Instructional Services is required in order to deviate from the schedule.