Associate Degrees

Associate in Arts Degree

Art History for Transfer

Students completing this associate degree will have completed lower-division major preparation requirements for an art history degree, an emphasis or option within an art history degree, or a degree considered similar to art history at a participating California State University (CSU) campus.

Following transfer to a participating CSU campus, students will be required to complete no more than 60 units to obtain a bachelor's degree; however, some CSU campuses may require additional lower-division major preparation. This degree may not be appropriate preparation for students transferring to a CSU campus not accepting this degree or to a university or college that is not part of the CSU system. Students should consult with a MiraCosta counselor for further information regarding the most efficient pathway to transfer as an art history major and to determine which CSU campuses are participating in this program.

Graduation Requirements

- ▶ Complete a minimum of 60 CSU-transferable semester units.
- ▶ Complete all courses in the major with a "C" or "P" or better.

- ▶ Complete the Cal-GETC (<https://catalog.miracosta.edu/degree/certificate-transfer/info/general-education-plans/planc/>) general education pattern.
- ▶ Obtain a minimum CSU-transferable grade point average of 2.0.
- ▶ Complete a minimum of 12 semester units in residence at MiraCosta College.

Program Student Learning Outcome

Upon completion of this program, the student will possess knowledge and mastery of a variety of art historical methodologies, be able to identify major movements in art and architecture, and be able to convey ideas and concepts about artwork, artists, and the socio-cultural milieu in which artworks were created.

Course Requirements

Required courses:
ART 100	Drawing and Composition	3
ART 258	Ancient to Gothic Art *	3
ART 259	History of Renaissance to Modern Art *	3

* Course satisfies a general education requirement Cal-GETC general education (GE) pattern. To ensure this degree is completed with no more than 60 units, students should select courses that will also satisfy a GE requirement. Note: The honors course is also a GE course.

NOTE: Students are strongly advised to select courses that meet lower-division major preparation requirements at their transfer university and to complete the History, Constitution, and American Ideals requirement prior to transfer.

Associate in Arts Degree

Studio Arts for Transfer

Students completing this associate degree will have completed lower-division major preparation requirements for a studio arts degree, an emphasis or option within a studio arts degree, or a degree considered similar to studio arts at a participating California State University (CSU) campus.

Following transfer to a participating CSU campus, students will be required to complete no more than 60 units to obtain a bachelor's degree; however, some CSU campuses accepting this degree may require additional lower-division major preparation. This degree may not be appropriate preparation for students transferring to a non-participating CSU campus or to a university or college that is not part of the CSU system. Students should consult with a MiraCosta counselor for further information regarding the most efficient pathway to transfer as a studio arts major and to determine which CSU campuses are participating in this program.

Graduation Requirements

- ▶ Complete a minimum of 60 CSU-transferable semester units.
- ▶ Complete all courses in the major with a "C" or "P" or better.
- ▶ Complete the Cal-GETC (<https://catalog.miracosta.edu/degreecertificatetransferinfo/generaleducationplans/planc/>) general education pattern.
- ▶ Obtain a minimum CSU-transferable grade point average of 2.0.
- ▶ Complete a minimum of 12 semester units in residence at MiraCosta College.

Program Student Learning Outcome

Upon completion of this program, the student will possess knowledge and mastery of a variety of art making skills, be able to identify major movements in art and architecture, and be able to convey ideas and concepts about artwork.

NOTE: Students are strongly advised to select courses that meet lower-division major preparation requirements at their transfer university and to complete the History, Constitution, and American Ideals requirement prior to transfer.

Associate in Arts Degree

Digital Photography

Students may earn the above-named associate degree by completing a certificate of achievement and the general education courses required for MiraCosta College's Associate in Arts degree (see Associate Degrees (<https://catalog.miracosta.edu/degreecertificatetransferinfo/requirements/>)). Students should meet with a MiraCosta counselor to identify required courses and to develop a written educational plan for the specific degree or certificate they wish to earn.

Certificate

Certificate of Achievement

Digital Photography

The Digital Photography certificate offers education and training in the use of digital cameras, related equipment, and editing tools and techniques for creating photographic portfolios, websites, and multimedia projects. Students produce a professional-quality printed portfolio. The program's emphasis may be in fine art or commercial photography.

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to do the following:

- ▶ Identify major movements, artwork, and artists in historical and contemporary photography, and demonstrate understanding of different photo techniques.
- ▶ Possess photographic and digital imaging knowledge and be able to identify fine art and commercial career pathways and apply current, photographic technology using professional and industry standards.

Certificate of Achievement

Museum Studies

The Museum Studies certificate is designed for students interested in transfer to four-year degree programs related to museum and gallery fields of study. The certificate offers education and experience related to the issues of exhibition, collection, preservation, and marketing of objects of display in museum or gallery spaces. Students produce a formal exhibition at MiraCosta College's Kruglak Gallery. The student's emphasis may be in either museum or gallery studies; emphases in museum display may cover a range of academic disciplines or specialties.

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to do the following:

- Analyze and communicate critically formulated ideas and concepts about the care, display, maintenance, and/or sale of object collections as commonly found in museums or galleries.
- Have documentable experience in the care, display, maintenance, and/or sale of object collections.

Required courses:
ART 270	History and Theory of Museum and Gallery Exhibition	3
ART 271	Museum and Gallery Exhibition	3
Required - Choose 4 courses from the following (12 units):		12

Courses

ART 100: Drawing and Composition

Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 100, ART 102, ART 200, ART 203, ART 213, and ART 263.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

This beginning course develops basic drawing skills. Students explore a variety of media and creative approaches, and they improve their perceptual abilities and personal expression. The course covers problems of value, structure, and composition using a variety of themes. It also integrates art history, theory, and criticism. C-ID ARTS-110.

ART 101: Design and Color

Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

Students explore and learn the language of design principles and color theory through visual problem solving. They create design projects using acrylic paint, ink, drawing, and mixed media on paper and other support surfaces. They also research, analyze, and evaluate elements of design and color in a range of art disciplines, including painting and drawing, graphic design, print and digital media, sculpture and public art, video and performance, architecture, and other popular arts. Students are required to attend field trips. C-ID ARTS-100, ARTS-270.

ART 102: Drawing and Composition II

Units: 3
Prerequisites: ART 100.
Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 100, ART 102, ART 200, ART 203, ART 213, and ART 263.
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course provides for the continued development of basic drawing skills introduced in ART 100. It emphasizes a creative approach using black and white and color media while exposing students to a variety of contemporary approaches toward space, scale, and content. The course also encourages students to develop personal expression through the combined manipulations of subject matter and materials. C-ID ARTS-205.

ART 103: 3D Design

Units: 3
Prerequisites: None
Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC
Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.
Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

In this sculpture course, students examine the language of three-dimensional form, structure, and space. The course develops personal expression, using a variety of themes and subject matter by ordering three-dimensional space through basic materials, such as clay, plaster, metal, and wood. It offers experiences with differing approaches within cultural contexts and integrates history, theory, and criticism, showing the interrelationship of the creative arts, humanities, and the self in western and non-western cultures. (Materials Fee: $35) C-ID ARTS-101.

ART 104: Artists & Designers Now

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 3 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall

This course examines contemporary ideas and processes of art and design through the study of living artists and designers. A historical overview provides context to movements and issues in art since the 1960s as preparation for visiting artists' and designers' presentations, video screenings, and visits to art and design exhibitions and/or studios. Students gain insight into ideas and material methods in diverse media including, but not limited to painting, drawing, sculpture, performance, photography, installation, 2D and 3D design production, and electronic media. This course is for beginning students in the field of art and design and related disciplines.

ART 157: Art Orientation

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 3 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

This basic art appreciation course introduces world art forms, techniques, traditions, and aesthetics. It emphasizes both Western and world art in historical and cultural contexts. Students examine visual artworks related to mortality and immortality, sustenance and survival, sexuality and gender, power and politics, and race and class. Students are required to visit a local public artwork or museum/gallery.

ART 158: Traditional Arts of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 3 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course introduces the non-Western arts of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas. It explores methodology and materials in diverse media as they reflect various cultures from ancient to contemporary periods. Museum visits are required. C-ID ARTH-140.

ART 159: Pre-Columbian Art

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Enrollment Limitation: Not open to students with prior credit in ART 159H.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 3 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course covers the arts of the indigenous peoples of Mesoamerica and South America. It surveys the various cultures of those areas from ancient periods to the points of European contact, emphasizing content and style of materials in diverse media. Museum visits may be required. C-ID ARTH-145.

ART 200: Drawing III

Units: 3

Prerequisites: ART 102.

Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 100, ART 102, ART 200, ART 203, ART 213, and ART 263.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This advanced drawing course focuses on contemporary drawing practices and conceptual thinking in the development of an individualized portfolio. Students apply subjective perspectives to selected subject matter and content using a variety of drawing media and large scale formats. Field trips to gallery and museum exhibitions, both on campus and in the community, are required.

ART 201: Objects and Ideas in Contemporary Art

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall

This course examines the ideas, concepts, and processes in contemporary art through presentations of vanguard artwork of the twenty-first century. Topics include the historical and cultural contexts of contemporary art and artists in western and non-western cultures. Students create three-dimensional art projects using unconventional materials in tandem with traditional materials and methods. Students are required to attend field trips. (Materials Fee: $35.00)

ART 202: Painting I: Acrylic

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Advisory: ART 100 or ART 101

Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 202, ART 212, ART 241, and ART 266.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course covers composition, techniques, and theory of painting using acrylic paint. Students investigate various acrylic painting techniques, art historical traditions, and theoretical positions. Coursework includes lecture, lab, critique, and independent projects. Students are required to view exhibitions in person and/or online.

ART 203: Figure Drawing I

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Advisory: ART 100

Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 100, ART 102, ART 200, ART 203, ART 213, and ART 263.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This beginning drawing course focuses on representation of the human figure. Students work from nude models and digital resources using materials such as charcoal, pencil, ink, and pastels. They learn how to depict action in quick gesture drawings as well as produce more complex tonal drawings with emphasis on composition and expression. Topics include basic anatomy, structure, and proportion with equal emphasis placed on line quality, value, and media control. C-ID ARTS-200.

ART 204: Painting I: Oils

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Advisory: ART 100 or ART 101

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Students study past and present practices in painting and work from various subjects, including still life, landscape, figures, portraits, or mixed imagery, either from life or two-dimensional references. Learning to be creative and analytical in painting images and forms, students develop skills in painting techniques, color mixing, composition, design, and personal concepts using traditional or water-soluble oils. Students are required to view exhibitions in person and/or online. C-ID ARTS-210.

ART 205: Painting I: Watercolor

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Advisory: ART 100 or ART 101

Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 205, ART 215, ART 242, and ART 255.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course investigates and experiences the unique characteristics of watercolor painting. Course topics explore compositional strategies, practical techniques, and theoretical concepts of painting using watercolor. Students study and apply various painting techniques, art historical traditions, and theoretical positions. Coursework includes lecture, lab, critique, and independent projects. Students are required to view exhibitions in person and/or online.

ART 206: Mixed Media Figure Studies I

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Advisory: ART 100 or ART 204

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall

Working from a posed model, students explore various approaches to representing the human figure using a choice of media, including oils, acrylics, ink, or pastels. Students study form and structure, inspired by the rich world traditions of art history, contemporary art practices, and individual creativity.

ART 207: Film Photography I

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This film photography course provides an in-depth study of the camera and its functions, working with film processing and printing techniques, lighting techniques, compositional and conceptual techniques, presentation, and exhibition of finished work. Areas of emphasis include black-and-white-photography, working with light-sensitive materials, exploring analog processes, and developing and executing photographic projects. Note: This is not a digital photography course, but in extreme or unusual circumstances, use of digital media may be integrated into instruction.

ART 208: Film Photography II

Units: 3

Prerequisites: ART 207.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course builds upon skills learned in Film Photography I (ART 207). Topics include intermediate and advanced techniques using a range of cameras and photographic processes. Students explore photography as a means of visual communication and creative expression, using darkroom materials, alternative photographic techniques, hybrid digital, and other analog processes to produce photographic work within a contemporary context. The course culminates with a professional portfolio of finished work.

ART 210: Printmaking I

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments between/ among ART 210, ART 218, ART 221, ART 222, ART 262.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

This course introduces woodcut, etching, lithography, and contemporary printmaking techniques. It emphasizes craftsmanship and individual expression and encourages experimentation in the use of materials.

ART 211: Mixed Media Figure Studies II

Units: 3

Prerequisites: ART 206.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall

This course provides students an opportunity to further their investigation of the human figure in contemporary painting. Objectives include the development of personal vision and alternative venues of expression. Students study twentieth and twenty-first century figurative artists, and they work from both live models and photographic references using a variety of mixed media, including oil or acrylic paint.

ART 212: Painting II: Acrylic

Units: 3

Prerequisites: ART 202.

Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 202, ART 212, ART 241, and ART 266.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course emphasizes intermediate practices in acrylic painting. Students create expressive works using a variety of techniques and materials unique to acrylics. Students study historic and current painters and contemporary painting trends. The course utilizes digital technology for artistic research and development. Students are required to view exhibitions in person and/or online.

ART 213: Figure Drawing II

Units: 3

Prerequisites: ART 203.

Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 100, ART 102, ART 200, ART 203, ART 213, and ART 263.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

In this intermediate life drawing course students create drawings of human figures, promoting visual acuity while exploring expressive drawing techniques and concepts in contemporary studio practice. The visual forms of the figure are strengthened through continued applications of two-dimensional drawing methods and practice. Figurative subjects are derived from nude models in the classroom, digital resources, and photos.

ART 214: Painting II: Oils

Units: 3

Prerequisites: ART 204.

Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 204, ART 214, ART 264, and ART 265.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course emphasizes intermediate practices in oil painting to create artwork in a context of personal meaning, narrative, and relevance for portfolio development. Students study artworks specific to the history of oil painting and contemporary practice while building technical skill and exploring alternative methods and materials. The course introduces digital technology as a preparatory tool for artists. Students are required to view exhibitions in person and/or online.

ART 215: Painting II: Watercolor

Units: 3

Prerequisites: ART 205.

Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments among ART 205, ART 215, ART 242, and ART 255.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course emphasizes intermediate practices in watercolor painting. Students continue to explore compositional methods while developing a portfolio of expressive paintings using techniques and materials unique to watercolor. Students study historic traditions and contemporary painters, trends, theoretical positions, and methods. This course utilizes digital and traditional technology for artistic research and development. Students are required to view exhibitions in person and/or online.

ART 216: Sculpture

Units: 3

Prerequisites: ART 103.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

This course concentrates on the exploration and refinement of a wide range of sculptural techniques and strategies, and it includes three-dimensional art theory. Students work with traditional mediums, such as clay, wood, and metal. The course also introduces students to installation and public works as well as time-based and kinetic art. (Materials Fee: $35.00)

ART 217: Figure Sculpture I

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Spring

This introductory-level figure sculpture course uses the human form as subject matter. Students work from digital sources, photos, imagination, and models. They develop conceptual drawings and maquettes and work with a variety of materials, such as clay, plaster, metal, cardboard, and fabric, to produce finished artworks. (Materials Fee: $35)

ART 218: Printmaking II

Units: 3

Prerequisites: ART 210.

Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments between/ among ART 210, ART 218, ART 221, ART 222, ART 262.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

Students study past and present practices in printmaking and a variety of techniques to further their skills in the medium. This course furthers students' knowledge of woodcut, etching, lithography, and contemporary printmaking techniques. It emphasizes print studio operations, particularly press maintenance and the formulation of wet materials.

ART 219: Figure Sculpture II

Units: 3

Prerequisites: None

Advisory: ART 217

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Spring

This intermediate-level figure sculpture course uses the human form as subject matter. Students work from researched images, photos, imagination, and models. They develop conceptual drawings and maquettes and work with a variety of materials, such as clay, plaster, metal, and wood, to produce finished artworks. (Materials Fee: $38)

ART 221: Printmaking III

Units: 3

Prerequisites: ART 218.

Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments between/ among ART 210, ART 218, ART 221, ART 222, ART 262.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

In this advanced-level printmaking course, students study past and present practices in printmaking and a variety of techniques to further their skills in the medium and their knowledge of woodcut, etching, lithography, and contemporary printmaking techniques. The course covers non-traditional print methods as well as mixed media printing and emphasizes print studio operations, particularly press maintenance, and the formulation of wet materials.

ART 222: Printmaking IV

Units: 3

Prerequisites: ART 221.

Enrollment Limitation: Maximum of four enrollments between/ among ART 210, ART 218, ART 221, ART 222, ART 262.

Acceptable for Credit: CSU, UC

Lecture 1.50 hours, laboratory 4.50 hours.

Course Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer

This course is designed for semi-professional students wishing to major in art with an emphasis in printmaking. Students work closely with the instructor to create a cohesive body of work for a portfolio or exhibition. The course emphasizes documenting and analyzing one's artwork.
