

History

The study of history is the endeavor to understand the present by becoming knowledgeable about the past. This knowledge is crucial to the development of an informed citizenry, which is an essential component of California State University's American Institutions and Ideals requirement. As the context of all human activity, history gives students the depth needed to understand society and their place in it. Students may take courses to prepare for a major in history or to fulfill general education requirements. A bachelor's degree in history can lead to a career in business administration, law, teaching, social services, journalism, finance, law enforcement, public relations, advertising, or government service.

Associate Degrees

Associate in Arts Degree

History for Transfer

Students completing this associate degree will have completed lower-division major preparation for a history degree, an emphasis or option within a history degree, or a degree considered similar to history at a California State University (CSU) campus. Following transfer to a participating CSU campus, students will be required to complete no more than 60 units to obtain a bachelor's degree; however, some CSU campuses may require additional lower-division major preparation. This degree may not be appropriate preparation for students transferring to a CSU campus not accepting this degree or to a university or college that is not part of the CSU system. Students should consult with a MiraCosta counselor for further information regarding the most efficient pathway to transfer as a history major and to determine which CSU campuses are participating in this program.

To complete the degree, students must fulfill the following requirements:

- ▶ Complete a minimum of 60 CSU-transferable semester units.
- ▶ Complete all courses required in the major with a "C" or "P" or better.
- ▶ Complete the CSU-GE (Plan B) or IGETC (Plan C)* general education pattern.
- ▶ Obtain a minimum CSU-transferable GPA of 2.0.

- ▶ Complete a minimum of 12 units in residence at MiraCosta College.

* Students completing IGETC may be awarded the degree, but they must complete a course from Area IC: Oral Communication to meet CSU admission requirements.

Program Student Learning Outcome Statement

Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to

- ▶ construct a historical thesis that could be supported by selected primary sources from the era covered by the course.
- ▶ articulate the causal and/or consequential elements of an event from the era covered by the course.
